Coach Information: Coach Hossam Hassan

Coach Hossam Hassan is a talented and internationally recognized coach with 30+ years of fencing experience. He holds nine certifications and degrees from the French Fencing Federation as well as the International Olympic Committee. He has produced 10 top ten finishers in international youth tournaments and 5 top finishers in World Cup events. He was also the National Coach for Egypt from 2002-2004, and during his time with the team, his Women's Foil team swept the Arab Nations Championship competition. Later that year, his Men's Foil Team qualified for the 2004 Olympics Games in Athens.

More locally, Head Coach Hossam has been coaching in St Louis (and Atlanta) since 2004. He taught after school programs at various area schools such as Rohan Woods School, Community School, New City School, Wilson School, Forsyth School, and MICDS among others. He also taught classes and camps at The Clayton Center and The Lodge at Des Peres. Many of his current students are nationally ranked and have national medals.
